Dear [REDACTED]:

Under the authority of Executive Order 12333, dated July 30, 2008, and pursuant to Title 18 United States Code (U.S.C.), § 2709 (§ 201 of the Electronic Communications Privacy Act of 1986) (as amended), you are hereby directed to provide to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) the name, address, length of service and local and long distance toll billing records associated with the following:

Account:	For Following Date(s) (YYYY-MM-DD):
[REDACTED]	From 2010-08-09 to Present

Please see the attachment following this letter for the types of information that you might consider to be a toll billing record. We are not directing that you should provide, and you should not provide, information pursuant to this letter that would disclose the content of any wire communication. Title 18 United States Code § 2510(8) defines content as "any information concerning the substance, purport, or meaning of" a communication.

If the time period noted above is from "inception," that term is intended to apply to the current account holder only. If the time period noted above is to the "present," that term is intended to direct production of information to the date of the processing of this letter. If providing information to the date of processing is not feasible, please provide information to the date of receipt of this letter.

[REDACTED]

In accordance with Title 18 U.S.C., § 2709(b), I certify that the information sought is relevant to an authorized investigation to protect against international terrorism or clandestine intelligence activities, and that such an investigation of a United States person is not conducted solely on the basis of activities protected by the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

In accordance with Title 18 U.S.C. § 2709(c)(1), I certify that a disclosure of the fact that the FBI has sought or obtained access to the information sought by this letter may endanger the national security of the United States, interfere with a criminal, counterterrorism, or counterintelligence investigation, interfere with diplomatic relations, or endanger the life or physical safety of a person. Accordingly, Title 18 U.S.C. § 2709(c)(1) and (2) prohibits you, or any officer, employee, or agent of yours, from disclosing this letter, other than to those to whom disclosure is necessary to comply with the letter or to an attorney to obtain legal advice or legal assistance with respect to this letter.

In accordance with Title 18 U.S.C. § 2709(c)(3), you are directed to notify any persons to whom you have disclosed this letter that they are also subject to the nondisclosure requirement and are therefore also prohibited from disclosing the letter to anyone else.

In accordance with Title 18 U.S.C. § 2709(c)(4), if the FBI asks for the information, you should identify any person to whom such disclosure has been made or to whom such disclosure will be made. In no instance will you be required to identify any attorney to whom disclosure was made or will be made in order to obtain legal advice or legal assistance with respect to this letter.

In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3511(a) and (b)(1), you have a right to challenge this letter if compliance would be unreasonable, oppressive, or otherwise unlawful.

You also have the right to challenge the nondisclosure requirement set forth above. If you wish to make a disclosure that is prohibited by the nondisclosure requirement, you must notify the FBI, in writing, of your desire to do so within 10 calendar days of receipt of this letter. That notice must be mailed or faxed to the Phoenix Division, attention: [REDACTED] (phone number: [REDACTED]), with a copy to FBI HQ, attention: General Counsel (fax number: 202-324-5366) and must reference the date of the NSL and the identification number found on the upper left corner of the NSL. If you send notice within 10 calendar days, the FBI will initiate judicial proceedings in approximately 30 days in order to demonstrate to a federal judge the need for nondisclosure and to obtain a judicial order requiring continued nondisclosure. The nondisclosure requirement will remain in effect unless and until there is a final court order holding that disclosure is permitted.

[REDACTED]

If you do not send notice of your desire to disclose the NSL or the fact that you produced records in response to it within 10 calendar days of receipt, then the nondisclosure provision will remain in effect, subject to your opportunity to make an annual challenge to the nondisclosure requirement as provided by subsection 3511(b).

In accordance with Title 18 U.S.C. § 3511(c), an unlawful failure to comply with this letter, including any nondisclosure requirement, may result in the United States bringing an enforcement action.

You are directed to provide records responsive to this letter personally to a representative of the San Francisco Division within 5 business day(s) of receipt of this letter. Please provide records in response to this letter in paper format or if possible, in electronic format. Due to security considerations, you should neither send the records through routine mail service nor non-secure fax, nor disclose the substance of this letter in any telephone conversation. In responding to this request in order to facilitate processing of the information, please reference the NSL-11-338847.
